

SECRETBRIEFED REPORT*July 11, 1951

C [report on his meeting with King Zog indicates that Zog has been in touch with Tito through the Yugoslav Ambassador to Egypt to determine the Yugoslav position in respect to Albania if Zog were to attempt to overthrow the present regime. Zog has been advised that no collaboration with Tito is presently possible, Tito does not want the present regime overthrown but would like to eliminate 4 or 5 key figures, and that Tito would not tolerate a Greek move against Albanian territory. In Zog's opinion Tito is making a strong effort to create a nationalist communist government in Albania at the earliest opportunity.
